A FOGGY DAY

(George Gershwin - Ira Gershwin)

I was a stranger in the city
Out of town were the people I knew
I had that feeling of self-pity
What to do? What to do? What to do?
The outlook was decidedly blue
But as I walked through the foggy streets alone
It turned out to be the luckiest day I've known.

A foggy day in London Town
Had me low and had me down
I viewed the morning with alarm
The British Museum had lost its charm.

How long, I wondered, could this thing last?
But the age of miracles hadn't passed
For, suddenly, I saw you there
And through foggy London Town
The sun was shining everywhere.

A GARDEN IN THE RAIN

(Carroll Gibbons - James Dyrenforth)

'Twas just a garden in the rain
Close to a little leafy lane
A touch of colour 'neath skies of grey.

The raindrops kissed the flower beds
The blossoms raised their thirsty heads
A perfumed "thank you" they seemed to say.

Surely here was charm beyond compare to view
Maybe it was just that I was there with you.

'Twas just a garden in the rain
But then the sun came out again
And sent us happily on our way.

Surely here was charm beyond compare to view
But, maybe it was just that you were there dear
You were so lovely.

'Twas just a garden in the rain
But then the sun came out again
And sent us happily on our way
Just a garden in the rain.
