A HUNDRED YEARS FROM TODAY

(Victor Young - Ned Washington - Joseph Young)

Don't save your kisses, pass them around
You'll find my reason is logically sound
Who's gonna know that you passed them around
A hundred years from today.

Why crave a penthouse that's fit for a queen
You're nearer heaven on Mother Earth's green
If you had millions, what would they all mean
A hundred years from today.

So laugh and sing, make love the thing
Be happy while you may
There's always one beneath the sun
Who's bound to make you feel that way.

The Moon is shining and that's a good sign
Cling to me, baby, say you'll be mine
Remember, darling, we won't see it shine
A hundred years from today.

(Instrumental break)

Remember, darling
We won't see it shine
A hundred years from today
A hundred years from today.

A RED KISS ON A BLUE LETTER

(Ray Evans - G. Lang - Roger Genger)

A red kiss on a blue letter
Is all I sent to you
A red kiss on a blue letter
To show what I've been through.

Each night I talk to myself
Telling myself
That I've kept my love true
And when you talk to yourself
You're telling yourself
That he feels that way too.

A red kiss on a blue letter
Is all that I sent to you.

(Instrumental break)

A red kiss on a blue letter
Is all that I sent to you.
