ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To the Best of the best, God, for every blowout win of happiness in my life, for the hat trick of fatherhood, for the four-goal game of forgiveness, and for the World Championship of being truly happy, of which You are the author and greatest benefactor. I love You, my God and my King.

To all those involved in sports: leaders, ball artists, referees, and lovers of the beautiful game, who have crossed and continue to cross my path, sharing tactics and techniques, and helping me achieve success with excellence in the philosophy of bringing together facts and events of the king of sports.

In a championship, every qualified team makes it to the final stage, but not all can be champions. In that same spirit, I would like to recognize the following individuals and personalities: Tomás Faria, Adailson and Andrea Nogueira, Honorato Silva, Amilcar Silvério, Fernando Jordão, Bonifácio Ngola, and Kilvio David.

To all of you, with the same affection, transparency, and respect — my greetings are certainly sporting in nature, but my hugs are kandimblé-style. Therefore, I wish you a landslide victory of blessings.
