Introduction

My intention in writing this book is to show the reader how important our life is in this world.

In the Bible it is written that everything was created and determined by God; we know we are here on this earth just passing through, we have been on a pilgrimage for a while, and taking advantage of this time I write here the facts that happened to me from my childhood until pass sixties; Life experiences with God and Jesus Christ. I also tell stories with examples of how to live life trusting God based on the Bible, which teaches us to live with faith, hope and love; with prudence, valuing what is most important in our life such as moral, spiritual and divine principles, its commandments and its laws. Thus, our life will become smoother and lighter, less tiring. At the end of this pilgrimage we are hoping for faith, the divine promises.

An eternal abode in heaven with God and the Lord Jesus Christ and all his angels and all the redeemed. Revelation 21:1

May God bless us all.

The Love of God

According to Aurélio (Brazilian dictionary), the word love means; Predisposes feeling someone has in order to wish the good of others. Feeling of absolute dedication from one being to another, or towards something. Inclination dictated by family ties. Strong sexual inclination by another person; affection, sympathy; love object.

To me, this feeling can be considered as the human being's love; as fleshy love, with all the desires of the flesh, due to the longings and needs of loving and being loved. Love is very difficult to define because it goes beyond feelings, words and actions. The love defined is the love of God.

In the Bible, we find the standard model of true love. 1Corinthians 13:4-7; Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

The human being does not have the capacity to love someone with this love. In the Bible, it is written in John 3:16; For God so loved the world, that He gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. Everyone who believes in Jesus, as their Lord and Savior, and repents of their sins receives this love, through God's forgiveness and the grace of Jesus Christ by the conviction of the Holy Spirit.

The power of love coming from God is the power to forgive even our enemies. The word of God teaches us in Colossians 2:2-3; That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. God is love, we must love God above all things, and our neighbor as ourselves.

In I John 4:7-14, God teaches us; Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. We have seen and testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. And by that love is defined.

True love is the one coming from God and is incomparable, it is singular, it is sovereign, sublime, simple, wise, wealthy, peacemaker, pure, just, immeasurable, infinite, infinitely more; God's love is everlasting, God's love is life and life in abundance, because God is love. Defined love is the love of God. May we love one another with this same love and love God above all things, which is the first and greatest of all the commandments of Jesus Christ.
